

FRISBEE ARRESTED ON SERIOUS CHARGE UNDER FALSE PRETENSES HE OBTAINED $11,500.

Everett Ransom, a Retired Farmer of This City, Says He Is the Victim—Alleged Guilty Party in Jail at Detroit—He Now Demands Requisition Papers.

Undersheriff Wallace Cochrane, of this city, has under arrest at Detroit, Mich., Daniel D. Frisbee. The prisoner is charged with having obtained under false pretenses $11,500 in cash and notes of Everett N. Ransom, of this city. Frisbee refuses to come to Janesville without the proper requisition papers, and today Sheriff Acheson has been in consultation at Madison with Gov. Scofield.

That the prisoner will soon be landed behind the bars of the Rock county jail there is little doubt, and he will in all probability be placed on trial here, and will then be given a chance to prove his innocence or guilt.

The Charge Against Frisbee.

The offense for which Frisbee is now behind the bars is one that resembles very much the old time gold brick scheme. Last July Frisbee and his partner arrived in Janesville, stopped at one of the best hotels, and after looking over the local field for a few days rented an office of Ed F. Carpenter on the bridge over the dry goods store of Archie Reid & Co. They had in their possession a patent tire setter that they claimed would do the work of resetting a tire on a wagon or buggy at a cost of a few cents where it has always cost dollars to do the same work. The implement was made of galvanized iron and was designed to hold a fluid that was heated from a lamp placed below. Mr. Frisbee showed his patent during the month of August at the corner of Milwaukee and River streets. This Detroit firm stated that they were not in the retail business, but were here in Janesville for the purpose of selling county right territory.

Found a Victim.

During the first week in August last Frisbee and his partner visited Everett N. Ransom, who then resided at No. 270 South Main street. It is alleged that they were before hand well informed that Ransom was a retired well-to-do farmer who had moved to Janesville from the town of LaPrairie to spend the balance of his days in comfort.

On seeing Mr. Ransom, it is alleged that Mr. Frisbee informed him that he was just the man they had been looking for to drive them about the country—to a number of adjoining towns, so that they might show their patent and sell county rights.

Mr. Ransom, not having any special business to occupy his time, informed Mr. Frisbee that he would accommodate him. With a spanking pair of bays he left town in company with Mr. Page, who was Mr. Frisbee's partner.

To a number of towns, not many miles from Janesville, they drove and put up at nothing but the best hotel in the place. Mr. Page managed this part of the transaction and paid all traveling expenses. At the livery stable where they would put up their team they would place on exhibition the patent tire setter they carried. In nearly every town they managed to interest some one, and they never left a place without selling the county right to "some person" who paid them a goodly price in spot cash.

A Thriving Business

These quick sales soon interested Mr. Ransom, and soon after returning to this city he and Mr. Frisbee are alleged to have closed a deal for certain territorial rights covering certain counties. On August 9, 12, and 18, Mr. Frisbee and Mr. Ransom closed their business in this city whereby Mr. Ransom parted with $11,500 in cash and notes for what territorial privileges that had been extended him. Of this amount of money Mr. Ransom paid out $3,500 in cash, and the balance in notes that have since involved the Rock County National and the Merchants' and Mechanics' banks of this city.

Soon after closing the deal here Messrs. Frisbee and Page left for their home in Detroit, making no secret whatever of the fact. After several days had passed Mr. Ransom came to the conclusion that he had been duped of his money. He now alleges that the men who purchased the county rights in the towns they visited, were coppers placed there for that purpose by Frisbee.

Arrested at Detroit.

On the charge of obtaining money and notes under false pretenses, a warrant was sworn out by Mr. Ransom in the municipal court of Rock county for the arrest of Mr. Frisbee and Saturday Under Sheriff Wallace Cochrane left the city for Detroit. A telegram since received from Under Sheriff Cochrane stated that Frisbee had been arrested, but that he refused to come back without the necessary requisition papers. To overcome this obstacle Sheriff Acheson today left for Madison to consult Governor Scofield. If Frisbee is brought back and placed on trial the indications are that developments of a sensational character may be expected at the trial.

The prisoner is a man well supplied with this world's goods, and that he intends to fight the case to the bitter end is well understood by those interested. Attorney John Cunningham, of this city, has been engaged by Mr. Ransom to look after his interests, while District Attorney Jackson has been busy of late looking up evidence in behalf of the state.

A JANESVILLE MAN WINS DISTINCTION

HIGH HONOR IS GIVEN LIEUT. JOSEPH B. WHITING.

New Position One That "Regulars" Covet, and Was Won by Hard Work and a Brilliant Record at a Competitive Examination To Determine as To Assignments.

Lieut. Joseph B. Whiting, Jr., acting assistant surgeon U. S. A., is now supposed to be on his way to Cuba, on board the transport Mobile, as medical officer of the signal battalion of the Seventh Army Corps. Lieut. Whiting's new position is one that is seldom given to any but regular army surgeons, and is much sought. The signal corps is composed of the flower of General Lee's big army of 30,000 men. Fifty officers and one hundred privates, all schooled for the exacting duties of the signal service, are picked from the whole army, as the duties of the battalion are peculiar, and requires men of high intelligence. The medical officer is not under orders of the superior medical officers of the corps, but work direct with headquarters, as he is the chief medical officer of an independent branch of the service as much as if he were the chief medical officer of an army corps.

A Competitive Examination

Some time ago, all the acting assistant surgeons of General Lee's corps were ordered to stand an examination, that they might be classified and assigned to permanent duties with the "army of occupation." So rigid was the inquiry, that fifteen assistants resigned after taking the examination, knowing that they had not passed. Lieut. Whiting took the examination with the others. Shortly afterwards he received an order relieving him from duty at the division hospital, and hurried to headquarters to "learn his fate." When he arrived there, he was handed an order to report for duty, forthwith, to Lieut.-Col. Maxfield, commanding the signal corps. Lieut. Whiting was overjoyed, as the place, all things considered, is held to be the best position in the army corps, and called on Lieut.-Col. Maus, Gen. Lee's chief medical officer, to express his appreciation.

"I am your friend, to be sure," said Colonel Maus after Lieutenant Whiting had thanked him; "but you do not owe your advancement to me. The place was given you in recognition of your splendid work since you have been attached to this army corps, and the brilliant record you made at the recent examination."

Due to Hard Work.

Lieutenant Whiting's many Janesville friends will congratulate him on his success. His advancement, since he entered Uncle Sam's service, had been steady. In no way has he been helped by political influence, and his rise is due to his own hard work and ability. He went to Jacksonville as a regimental assistant surgeon of volunteers, but at once attracted Colonel Maus' attention. On the recommendation of that officer, he resigned as a volunteer, and entered the regular service or a "contract surgeon." Since then he has been advanced gradually until today he holds a place that any major surgeon of the regulars would feel honored to fill.

"I have gone into the service with one definite aim," said Lieut. Whiting to a local friend when he was home a short time ago, "and that is to learn. I realize that the opportunity of my lifetime has come, and I am going to make the most of it. Fifteen years in the National Guard have taught me the possibilities that lie before me as a surgeon of regulars, and I shall devote all my energies in that one direction."

That Lieut. Whiting has followed this plan is clearly shown. Nothing but hard work, and good service counts in the regular army. All stand on an equal footing, and the rule of the "survival of the fittest" prevails. "Contract surgeons" are not usually popular with regular army men, as they are liable to be deficient in military knowledge and training, but in Lieut. Whiting's case, this prejudice has been overcome, and he has taken his place with the surgeons who have made military work their life study.

RUIZ MOURNS GARCIA

Rivera Was Overcome When Informed of His Compatriot's Demise.

New York, Dec. 12.—[Special]—Gen. Ruiz Rivera, the Cuban general, recently liberated by the Spanish government from Ceuta, arrived here today on the steamer La Champagne. He was overcome when informed of Garcia's death.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Gen. Calixto Garcia of the Cuban army is dead at the Raleigh hotel in this city. He outlived the dangers and privations of two wars and fell before a common cold. After an illness of only three or four days he passed away at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Gen. Garcia came to Washington about a week ago as president of the Cuban commission to confer with President McKinley about the future of Cuba. He contracted a cold. It developed into pneumonia, which was the direct cause of his death.

Secretary Alger notified the president of Gen. Garcia's death and it was decided to send a military guard of honor to the Raleigh at once. Accordingly Lieut. Kopp of the Sixth artillery and a detachment of twelve men were detailed for this duty. Three non-commissioned officers and nine men stood on guard all day, and at night an officer and three men were on guard.

In the midst of their grief the Cubans who stood about praised the kindly attentions they had received from President McKinley and the officers of the administration. The single act of the president in sending a guard of soldiers will do inestimable good. The Cubans consider it a mark of great honor.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler has been designated by the secretary of war to confer with the Cuban commission and Gen. Garcia's family and arrange for a military funeral.

A NEW INDUSTRY FOR JANESVILLE

BEE! SUGAR MAKING WOULD ADD TO PROSPERITY.

It is Profitably Conducted in Many Small German Towns—The Crop is a Reliable One and the Profits
Are Certain—The Observations of Dr. H. Speier.

Editor Gazette—A few weeks ago there appeared in this paper an account of a very interesting meeting of the Twilight Club, and the suggestions made by some of our most representative citizens as to the needs of our city. The topic is of vital interest to every inhabitant of this city, particularly when we hear that neighboring towns are developing and progressing while it is freely charged that Janesville is at a standstill, if not on a down grade. It was a surprise, to me that none of the speakers referred to what in my opinion would contribute more to the prosperity of Janesville than anything mentioned, the establishment of a beet sugar refinery. I came from a section of Germany which, one of the most fertile anyway, has been immensely benefited by the introduction of the beet culture. Farmers, the owners of large estates as well as of small holdings, have become generally wealthy. I wish our Janesville friends could travel through that country and see for themselves the condition of its farming communities, the state of cultivation of the soil, the character of farm buildings, churches, schools, etc. It is needless to point out the influence of the farmer's prosperity upon the commercial and industrial progress of the land.

In my native city, a place about the size of Janesville, there are two sugar refineries, (a near relative of mine general manager of one, a cousin, chemical director of another) and others in neighboring counties. The stock, held largely by small people, ranks among the best industrial investments. During the panic of 1873, which struck Germany as disastrously as the United States, when industrial enterprises of all description fell like leaves in Autumn, beet sugar refineries, even though recently started like one in our own town, were able not only to hold their own but get a good dividend.

As soon as I came to Janesville I was struck by the similarity of climatic conditions, character of soil, degree of humidity, agricultural products to those obtained in my native German country. Of course, I cannot make a comparative chemical analysis of soils, but I am convinced that this Rock River section could become just as fine and prosperous a sugar beet country. The commercial features of the question, the advantages or disadvantages of Janesville as a distributing or shipping point, the influence upon the sugar business of the acquisition of new territories etc., these I will not presume to discuss for I know too little of them. But I will point out one advantage we possess. Most of the German farmers of our neighborhood have practical knowledge of beet culture and a vivid recollection of the profits resulting from it. They could easily be induced to go into it without the loss and embarrassments otherwise unavoidable.

It is true the buildings and equipment of a sugar factory and the expenses incidental to the introduction of a new crop, require a large capital, but the benefits ought to be correspondingly great as proven by the experience of other lands and parts of our own country. To the farmer a new product, yielding large gains per acre, not determined by the harvest in Argentina or Central Russia, but by domestic consumption, a fresh impetus to cattle raising and dairy farming, for the residue of the beet is unsurpassed as food for stock; to the capitalist, a satisfactory interest upon money invested to the town, a new industry, giving employment to many hands, to its merchants larger sales owing to the increased purchasing power to the farmer. Such an undertaking, being founded upon natural conditions, the resources of soil and climate, would be permanent, not doomed to failure by a change of economic conditions in another section of the country, as the growth of the cotton industry in the south. The matter deserves the attention of the capitalists and friends of Janesville. Respectfully,

H. SPEIER, M. D.

MURPHY SPEAKS FOR TEMPERANCE

BEGINNING OF THE CRUSADE
AGAINST LIQUOR DRINKING.

Two Large Audiences Through the Army
Yesterday—The Afternoon Address Chiefly Reminiscent—Plans for Total Abstinence Coupled with Religious Consecration.

The temperance crusade under charge of Francis Murphy had an auspicious opening yesterday afternoon. The Army was filled with an intelligent audience that paid the closest attention throughout and remained till the close although the atmosphere was chill and every breath one inhaled was laden with the seeds of pneumonia and death. Overcoats and wraps were a necessity, and the women had the advantage of the men in being able to retain their head covering. If there is not a large increase in the population of Oak Hill as a result of yesterday's meeting it will not be the fault of those having it in charge.

The usual devotional exercises were conducted under the direction of the city pastors, who were well represented upon the platform. The audience sang with vigor the stirring hymns set for the occasion in the attempt to inspire enthusiasm, but as soon as they were concluded coat collars came up over the ears of everyone present, and each strove to compress himself into as small a space as possible in order to get away from the cold, which was chilling to the marrow.

When Mr. Murphy was presented he too seemed cold, but he soon warmed up to his subject. He had few of the tricks of the conventional temperance orator. His tricks were all his own, and being new to his hearers were used with excellent effect.

Mr. Murphy is a believer in temperance provided it comes hand in hand with religion, and spurs as worse than useless all attempts to make men sober except, as he expresses it, "through the grace of God." The only reformation of a drunkard, he holds, that can be permanent must come from a change of heart—from an acceptance of the doctrines of the Christian religion. But he was not narrow in prescribing the limits of that religion, for he gave credit alike to the temperance workers in all the churches, Catholic and Protestant, paying an especial compliment to the efficiency of Archbishop Ireland, Father Mathew, and Father Ward, from the latter of whom he had received valuable assistance in the prosecution of his work in Beloit.

Mr. Murphy then proceeded to speak of his own life—his environment in his native land, the parting from his mother that he might seek fortune in America, and then he referred briefly to the wreck liquor had made in his life. He attributed his reformation solely to the grace of God.

The evening meeting was a notable outpouring. Every foot of space in the large hall was occupied. Mr. Murphy entered more fully into the temperance problem than he had done in the afternoon, and gave many illustrations of the evils resulting from indulgence in intoxicating liquors. He was eloquent, pathetic and humorous by turns and kept the attention of his audience to the close. After the address those present were urged to step forward and sign the pledge of total abstinence, and many did so.

Mr. Murphy will speak again this evening.

PLEADS FOR THE WAYLAND ACADEMY

PRESIDENT VOSBURGH SPEAKS
AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

He Shows the Benefits Derived From a Christian Education—The Responsibility of Teachers for the Character of Their Pupils—Good Words for Wayland.

Yesterday was "Education Sunday" at the Baptist church. President H. J. Vosburgh, of Wayland Academy, Beaver Dam, was present, and gave the sermon. His subject was "A Christian School." He was glad that there are so many christian teachers working in all kinds of schools.

Let us notice first that christian schools are the oldest schools of the world. During the last ten years christian men have given tens of millions for christian education. It is incredible that these men have given so much for something that is not valuable. The christian schools have the sanction of these careful business men.

Notice again that these christian schools have had a very great and beneficial influence upon the churches. Our ministers, missionaries and christian men and women have largely been the results of these christian schools. They were organized to build up christian character and have generally fulfilled their mission.

What is a christian school? It is not a reformatory for bad boys. It is not a theological seminary. The fundamental characteristic of a christian school is that the faculty is composed of christian men and women. Do you realize what this means? Boys and girls are imitative, and they will follow the example of their teachers, and they imitate his weaknesses more than his virtues. Scores of boys have been led to become scoffers because they were under the instruction of an infidel teacher.

Notice that a christian teacher will give better instruction than one who does not love God.

A man who has the spirit of Christ in his heart will have his teaching colored by that spirit although he does not turn his classroom into a prayer meeting.

Again, the bible is honored in our christian schools. The studies of our schools are to build up christian manhood, and what book is there that will so benefit the intellect and character as the bible.

Again, all the forces of the christian school are intent upon building up christian character. The educated man is going to be the man who will fill the responsible positions in the future and those men ought to be guided and directed by the Christian spirit.

Wayland academy is doing this class of work and it needs a better equipment. We have better equipments than we have ever had before, but we need much more. We are building a new recitation building through the beneficence of Mr. E. J. Lindsey of Milwaukee, who has given $5,500 as a beginning. We are going on and God's people are going to continue the good work and make this one of the strongest denominational schools in the west.

A goodly collection for the benefit of Wayland was taken.

Baptism followed the service.

A PLEASING MELODRAMA

A Treat May be Expected at the Opera House This Evening

The management of the Myers Grand takes pleasure in announcing as one of the particularly special engagements of the season, that which will serve the bill for tonight. It will be the first production in this city of a new and original farce in three acts, entitled "The Old Coat."

This play has for an author a gentleman whose pursuits are rather far from the literary world, and just now is attracting a great deal of attention in the theatrical profession from the fact that he is a lieutenant in the United States navy, and that his name has been conspicuously mentioned in the late naval actions before Cuba. He is Lieutenant W. H. Alderdice, of the gunboat Newport. His play will be presented by the Smyth & Rice Comedy company, which is recognized as an organization of standard merit. It has many successes to its credit and will be known here from the jolly entertainment it afforded during its last visit to this city in that roaring success "My Friend from India."

Besides additional interest is attached to its re-appearance because of the presence in the cast of Mr. Frederick Bond, Miss Helen Reimer and Miss Clara Hathaway. They are known to Louisville through their association with the stock company at the Auditorium there, two summers ago, where they left the most vivid and pleasing impression behind them.

The first act is laid in the lawyer's office and shows how the pockets of the old coat come to be made the receptacle of an important legal document, a letter compromising a pompous client of the firm, a couple of five hundred dollar notes, some love letters and other sundries. The legal document concerns a lieutenant in the navy, the thousand dollars represents the capital the junior member of the firm has set aside for wedding expenses addressed to his mother. So freighted the coat starts on its journey. A scrub woman abstracts the thousand dollars from the coat pocket, the young lawyer's fiancée visits the office and purloins the coat to be used as a pattern for a smoking jacket. When the loss is discovered the four men are equally concerned in its recovery and the scrub woman, conscience stricken, joins in the search that she may restore the notes before the theft is discovered. From the law office to the home of the bank president, which is likewise the home of the young lawyer's fiancée, the coat journeys. The papers are scattered, the letters fall into the hands of the bank president's and the attorneys sweetheart and arouse jealous fury. Finally the coat is returned to its proper peg in the law office. The money and papers are restored and only clever prevarication explains the incriminating letters satisfactorily to the suspicious woman into whose hands they have fallen.

Cumulative Evidence

A proof of merit in any article is the amount of free advertising it receives. The universal success of Pabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, is largely due to one person's telling another of the benefits derived from its use. It is sold in almost every city and town in the United States. Its purity and efficacy have given it the immense popularity it has attained. It is indorsed by thousands of physicians and patients. It makes strength. It gives vigor and health when every avenue of hope seems to be closed.

When you ask for Pabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, do not be led into buying something else. Many imitations have recently appeared. Remember that Pabst Malt Extract, The "Best" Tonic, was the only malt preparation declared perfect by the judges at the World's Fair, and alone marked with 100 points of perfection. The way to obtain the greatest amount of benefit for the least amount of money is to have your druggist deliver you a dozen bottles at a time.

THE EMPEROR EXPECTS WAR.

Why Kaiser Wilhelm Wants His Army Increased.

READY FOR EMERGENCIES.

The Strained Relations Existing Between Great Britain and France Have Caused Him Uneasiness—The Probable Attitude of Russia.

Berlin, Dec. 12.—Emperor William Sunday cordially received Dr. von Frege and Herr Schmidt, the new vice presidents of the reichstag, and entered into conversation with them on the general situation. All through the conversation the emperor repeatedly emphasized the statement that, although Germany was on a peaceful and friendly footing with all the powers concerned, the international situation required great attention, as every one could see for himself. It was, therefore, necessary to carry out the proposed perfecting and completing of the army. His majesty acknowledged that consideration of the tax-paying capacity of the country prevented more being done.

Says Emperor Expects War.

London, Dec. 12.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily News says he understands that the emperor, during his conversation with the newly elected vice-presidents of the reichstag, spoke of the possibility of a war between France and Great Britain, and the attitude of Germany toward the belligerents, which would certainly be influenced by the attitude of Russia.

The emperor believes that the energy that is being displayed by Great Britain is not merely for the purpose of going through maneuvers, but that she is pursuing certain political objects with unusual tenacity. The policy of the United States before the outbreak of the Spanish war was marked by the same characteristics. According to the correspondent, his majesty referred to the friendly relations between Germany and Great Britain.

The view in the highest quarters in Germany is that localized war between Great Britain and France would mean the final defeat of the French, but there would be great losses on both sides. If the war assumed wider dimensions by the interference of a third power Germany's interests might be concerned. She must rely on the strength and readiness of her army to meet all conditions. Hence the fresh demands for an increase of the army.

A POPULAR MISTAKE

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect indigestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles. When in fact, as Dr. Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essence fruit salts and bismuth. It is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because all the stomach needs is rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

Druggists sell these tablets at 50cts. per package. Circulars and testimonials sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co. Marshall, Mich.

Under the heading "Amazing Courage of Congress," The Milwaukee Sentinel says: "Once again has the congress of the United States dared to oppose the wishes of The Janesville Daily Gazette." The fact that congress so closely follows the wishes of The Gazette worries the discredited Sentinel, as no one pays any attention to the wishes of that paper these days. The lesson is plain, however--The Sentinel should follow The Gazette and congress, and in time it would again become an influential paper.

The bright, snappy and entertaining Milwaukee Journal came out Saturday night in holiday attire. The cover page was printed in colors on the new Goss perfecting press recently bought. The new press is the only one of the kind west of New York city. The Journal was the first Wisconsin paper to use Linotype machines, and is the first paper in the west to use the modern press with color appliances. The state may well be proud of The Journal, as it is all that a progressive yet reliable newspaper should be.

No. Rider.	Miles.	Laps.	Prizes.

Miller's victory in the six-day New York race a year ago showed 1,983 miles, seventy miles more than the best ride ever made before. His first try at a six-day affair came at Tattersalls last year, when he covered easily 1,764 miles and quit second. Miller is 23 years of age and was born in Saxony. He is 5 feet 6 inches high and weighs 160 pounds.

Operators Ready to Strike--
Montreal, Que., Dec. 12.--The Order of Railway Telegraphers, which has been in session here, through its executive committee, for the last three months in an endeavor to secure certain concessions from the Grand Trunk, has finally announced that the limit of their patience has been reached. According to the committee's program a delegation will demand that General Manager Hays of the Grand Trunk at once enter into a consideration of the demands of the telegraphers. From the attitude adopted by the Grand Trunk in its dealings with the men, it is probable that Hays will refuse to admit the right of the order to interfere in the affairs of the road. What will follow that is, of course, problematical.

Hobson's Train Is Wrecked.

WILCOX OBSEQUIES HELD YESTERDAY

SERVICES DEVOID OF ALL OSTENTATIOUS DELAY.

Many Prominent Business Men Were in Attendance.—Son of the Deceased Was Not Present.—Brief Remarks Appropriate for the Occasion Made by Rev. R. C. Denison.

Yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the home on East Milwaukee street, services were held over the remains of the late Charles T. Wilcox. Rev. Robert C. Denison, of the Congregational church, officiated, and the services were short and most appropriate, that being the desire of relatives.

The remarks of Rev. Mr. Denison were appropriate to the occasion. He said:

"I am not here to make a few general statements on some subject unconnected with this hour. I am here to speak to the occasion. And, thus speaking, I am here to offer to those for whom this sorrow is darkest, that human sympathy which I know is in the hearts of all of us. And beyond this I may add a personal word. We are all creatures of many moods. Each one of us has discovered surprisingly different moods in himself. I had known Mr. Wilcox for the two years I had been in Janesville, and to me he had shown only a side of friendliness and courtesy. What other moods there may have been in him I do not know; that these moods of friendship were in him I do know, and of them I gladly testify.

"Speaking to this occasion I have also a word to say to this community. There are some things which we do and say which bring us only regret. If a man has done an unkind thing the memory of it will bring him no comfort. If a man has so far lowered the standards of his life as to allow himself to feel a malicious satisfaction at the woes or failures of another, there is not a thing of which he can be proud. Such feelings belong only to the lowest part of our nature. They are the tiger within us. They do not dignify our manhood. They do not give us the right to think highly of ourselves.

"On the other hand there are some other things men may do and think which they are glad to remember. If any one here remembers a kind word spoken to the dead he is not ashamed of our nature. We must lift our thoughts up to the best within us, to pity, to sympathy, to truth. And one thing more. Our human spirits do not create themselves. They are formed in the hand of God. And in calmness, in justice, in mercy God judges them. The last decision is not with us. What we say does not determine a soul's destiny. We must leave the final judgment to God, and we need not fear to do so. With an eye that sees all circumstances and all secrets God gives the verdict, and shall not the judge of all the earth do right?"

In a plain black casket the remains rested, the floral offerings consisting of a sheaf of grain and a pile of beautiful roses. A quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Yates, Mrs. C. L. Clark and George G. Paris sang music selected for the occasion. The rooms were filled to overflowing the greater portion of those present having been intimately acquainted with the deceased for many years.

William Wilcox, son of the deceased, was not present, his whereabouts being unknown.

At the close of the services the remains were interred in Oak Hill cemetery. The pall bearers were: A. A. Jackson, N. O. Clark, W. T. Vankirk, Edward Ruger, A. S. Lee and Samuel C. Cobb.

ANOTHER STREET PETITION

Vacating of Wall Street Was Discussed Saturday Evening

The only question taken under discussion at the special council meeting Saturday evening was the Wall street vacating matter.

Alderman Kothman introduced an order regarding a subsequent petition of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company in the matter of vacating a portion of Wall street, and that the petition be acted upon at the meeting of the common council to be held December 19, at 7:30, and that the clerk give notice of the same in the official paper and by posting four notices in conspicuous places at least one week before the said meeting.

The order was adopted unanimously and the council adjourned.

PREACHED ON THE SUBJECT OF SUICIDE

REV. MR. HALL TAKES UP A TOPIC OF LIVE CONCERN.

Those Who Place Their Dependence Upon Deity Will Not Resort to the Refuge of Self-Destruction—A Placid Soul Resting Upon the Rock of Ages is Tranquil.

Rev. W. A. Hall spoke yesterday morning at Court Street church on suicides. His text was "Why art thou cast down, O my soul and why art thou disquieted within me? Hope thou in God." The subject is the sermon in part. A bird shot midflight falls to the earth. So suicide stops a life mid-career and it falls to the ground. Why do suicides come in epidemics? I will give some reasons that may at least be suggestive of a fuller and better theory.

A river has a bright surface glow when the moonlight floats on its surface, but down beneath the surface splendor is the gloom of deeper currents. So it is with humanity. Courteous words, smiles, laughter, song, these are on the surface but deeper there are currents of sadness. How easily the soul is cast down.

You are fishing. You watch the gay red, and white bobber that floats serenely on the satin splendor of the shining surface of the lake. Down, down, it goes, almost out of sight. You pull up with all your magnificent weight and on the end of the line is a rock bass so contemptibly small that you are mad at yourself for catching it.

How easily that bobber was pulled down. So with the soul. It floats now in a glorious radiance. Surely all is well. Then some contemptible little thing takes hold of the line of the soul and pulls it at once into beginning darkness. Then the soul like the sea is the creature of the storm. Its smoothness is roughened, its brightness is darkened how easily.

Now despondency is a predisposing cause, but it alone is not enough. One suicide is a suggestion. Here is the way out. It is an encouragement. What man has done, man can do. It is example. Sheep will follow sheep and men, men until the end of time.

God has something to say about suicide. Thou shalt not kill. The command is not limited. It does not say whom. It includes suicide as well as murder. The person who commits suicide, if sane, is responsible. The bible shows us the way out of despondency.

"Hope thou in God." Hope is a light that shines brightest when it is darkest; a fire that glows warmest when it is coldest; the morning star that says "I see the morning climbing the east." Hope is an angel clothed in light stooping, but to light her torch in the embers, and then exultantly to lead on. But hope not to disappoint should not be in chance, or in man, or in self, but in God. Man is finite hence he falls short, hence he disappoints. God infinite, he does not fall short, he does not disappoint. "My God." Who says my house or my farm says something. Who says "My God" says everything.

TO OBSERVE SECRECY.

United States Will Not Be Too Free with Naval Information.

New York, Dec. 12.—A special to the Herald from Washington says:

"Action has been taken by Secretary Long to withhold information concerning American naval affairs from foreign governments. A regulation has been issued announcing that 'formal official information for attaches and other foreign officials in Washington or abroad will be furnished through the bureau of navigation by the office of naval intelligence.' This regulation is due largely to the refusal of foreign governments to give American officers information which they seek. Hitherto the authorities have been very open with foreign attaches, but in the future it is likely the secrecy which exists abroad will be followed here."

Soldiers on the Way Home.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 12.—Maj.-Gen. Brooke and staff and the entire First Kentucky regiment of volunteers boarded a train of three sections, consisting in all of forty-one Pullman cars, at Newport News today and left for Louisville, where a reception will be given the soldiers who have just returned from San Juan.

THE GAZETTE WAS AHEAD AS USUAL

ANNOUNCED SIGNING OF PEACE TREATY, SATURDAY.

No Other Evening Paper in the Northwest Had the News.—The Achievement Was But One of Many That Demonstrate Its Enterprise in the Publication of News.

The value of The Gazette as a newspaper was again demonstrated on Saturday. It was the only evening newspaper in the northwest that announced the signing of the treaty of peace between the United States and Spain. The Chicago and Milwaukee evening papers went to press and were distributed without containing a word relative to the most important event in the nation's history since the signing of the peace protocol.

The document was signed in Paris at 8:45 on Saturday evening, Paris time. This was about 3:45 o'clock Janesville time. At 4 o'clock the news was in The Gazette office, and fifteen minutes later was being distributed in every part of the city.

This is the latest of many events of importance in the struggle between Spain and the United States which have been communicated to readers of The Gazette in advance of its contemporaries. The telegraphic service of the Scripps-McRae syndicate, which supplies The Gazette with news, is always on the lookout for important intelligence, and is never anticipated. Those who depend upon the Chicago and Milwaukee papers for their news were obliged to wait until Sunday morning to learn that the peace negotiations had been concluded on terms satisfactory to and dictated by the United States.

SPEAK OUT

The Search Light of Publicity Is Pleasing Janesville People

Publicity is what the people want. Let the people speak on the subject. There has been too much claim, to little proof. Claims made by strangers is not proof. There is only one kind of proof for a Janesville citizen. That is the experience of people we know. When friends and neighbors endorse, make public statement of their case. There can be no question about such evidence. This is the convincing proof we have. Which backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills: No other kidney pills, no other kidney remedy can produce such proof. Here is one case of the many we have:

Mr. E. Dillenback, of 126 Milton Ave., retired farmer, says: "My wife was troubled with kidney complaint for four or five years, and complained of pains in the small of the back in the region of the kidneys. The symptoms all indicated that the kidneys were deranged, and the doctors who treated her said that those organs caused the trouble. As she did not get any better we thought Doan's Kidney Pills might give her relief, and procuring them at the Janesville Co's. store, I had her use the remedy. It did for her all that could be expected and did her a great deal of good. We can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and you can use our names as saying what has been stated above."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's and take no substitute.

A Well-Known Restaurant.
The popular dining rooms of The Mrs. Clark Co., 151-153 Wabash Ave., Chicago, which were recently destroyed by fire, are now open to the public. The place has been very much enlarged, refitted and improved.

For a good meal, in good company, in good quarters, at a modest price, The Mrs. Clark Co., easily ranks among the very first. No one will make a mistake in patronizing this restaurant.

Parties have stolen our labels, style of package, and tell the sick that "Our" tea is just like Rocky Mountain Tea. They would ruin your health for a little added profit. Beware! Smith's Pharmacy, kodak agents.

Brooke May Govern Cuba.
Washington, Dec. 12.—Brig. Gen. M. V. Sheridan, chief of staff to Maj.-Gen. John S. Brooke, reached Washington last night. Gen. Brooke reached here today. Gen. WEEK IN CONGRESS.

Army Bill May Come Up in the House and Canal Bill in the Senate.
Washington, Dec. 12.—Beyond the first three days there is no program mapped out for the house this week. To-day is devoted, under the rules to the consideration of business relating to the District of Columbia, and on Tuesday the District of Columbia appropriation bill will be taken up. The appropriations sub-committee on pensions will commence work on the pension appropriations bill to-day, but it can hardly be ready before next week. It is possible that Chairman Hull of the military affairs committee will be able to bring in the army reorganization bill as soon as the District appropriation bill is out of the way. The democrats are divided upon the question of increasing the regular army, but how far the opposition will go in antagonizing the measure it is impossible to forecast. If the army reorganization bill does not come up the various committees, under the call, will probably be allowed to clean up business which they have on the calendar. The course of proceedings in the senate this week will depend upon the disposition that is made of the Nicaragua canal bill. It is Senator Morgan's intention to call up this measure to-day, and he has expressed the hope that he will secure action at that session. The
